THE COURTS.

THE MISSING BONDS OF ERIE. JAY GOULD ON THE WITNESS STAND-ERIE'S

SUBTERFUGES. Mr. Southmayd resumed, yesterday, his quest for the stolen shares of Eric stock claimed by the Euvestigation was the cool indifference with which Jay Gould, who appeared and testified, disregarded the orders of the Master in Equity, and the plainly apparent regret of the Linster that he had not the power to commit Gould

The first witness examined was B. Ogden White, who testifica:

Mr. Southmayd then examined Jay Gould, who testified as follows:

Q. Are you the President of the Eric Railroad Company! A. 1 am.
Q. Look at the summons and any if it is a daplicate of the order served upon you, and whether you produce or decline to produce the books and papers it eals for. A. The summons that was served upon me was on their paper, but it think this is doplicate.

Q. Do you produce or decline to produce the books and papers do serbled in that summons! A. I have made a personal examination of the books in the Treasmer's and Anditor's Departments, and there is no entry centaining an investory of the stock.

The Master—That is not the question; it is whether you produce to books and papers called for! A. The only entry there is the proceeds of the convertible bonds, 4630,000.

Mr. Kouthmand—I will ask the witness in detail. Q. The first book called for in this order is the stock ledger, or the ledger in use from Sept. 4, 1870, to the present time; is there any such book? A. Not to my knowledge. knowledge.

Q. You don't know, then, whether there is or is not a stock ledger of the Company of which you are President! A. I never saw it to me knowledge. knowledge.

Q. Do you know whether there is a stock transfer book of the Eric Railrood Company which was in use in Neptamber, 1870, and transfer books which were in use in December, 1870, and January, 1871, had your Company any transfer books in those months? The Mastey—Le it in your power? A. I can't say without referring to the articles of the Company. [Laughter.]

Mr. Southmanyd—Bo you always examine the articles of the Association before you determine anything? A. Yes; in any extraordinary case. Q. Year transfer clers is John A. Hilton, and the testified that most of the beaus and papers which are called for by the Master's order were locked up in the set in his room, the last time he saw them, whose direction is needed to send them as required; can the trainfer clerk do it himself? A. I shower that the officers' owers are regulately by certain rules of the Association, and I there examined them with a view of ascertaining of the Directors.

Q. Lo you know any one about that concern who has the power, if you have it not, to order those books to be brought here? A. I don't want to guess: I can't give you are intuligent answer without examining the articles of the Association. [Great languister.]

Q. I want to know if there is any officer about that concern who has that power? A. I has better conline myself to facts; I can't give any other answer until I look at the articles.

Q. Is there are other person who has that power, or whose order the treasfer clark will about T. A. The transfer clerk has charge.

Q. I repeat the uncertaint A. I give the same answer; I don't know me own powers; this question never areas since I became President of the Company.

me own powers; this question never areas since I because President of the Company.

The Master—That is not the question here; I presume yos know, as an officer of that Company, whether your orders will be obeyed by your authoritinates; I now ask you whether they would stop to inqure. If you directed them to do anything, if you had or had not authority to order them? A No, there would not.

Q. The question here is, if you order these books to be produced, will they be produced or of! I want to know, if you read from here a written order to the efficials of the formpany for these books, whether the books will be produced, state whether they would or would not!

Witness—You sak me to give an opinion.

The Master—Then too hat we on knowledge as to whether pour orders would be obeyed or not! A. No, I have not.

Mr. Southmanyd—I now ask the suspension of the examination of this witness, for the purpose of examining John A. Hilton, the Transfer Clerk. Mr. Hilton testified as follows:

John A. Hilton, the Transfer Clerk. Mr. Hilton testified as follows:

Q. The last time you saw those books they were in your office—locked up in the safe! A. They were.

Q. You hast the combination of that safe, and can open it unless the combination has been changed? A. Yes I can.

Q. If Mr. Gould, the President of the Company, should now direct you to go to the office of the Eric Railroad Company, open that safe, and bring those books down here, would you do it! [A long pause, in which the witness trembles from head to foot, and became very pale.] A. If they were in the safe I would get them.

Q. I want to know if you would obey that order! A. I would.

Jay Gould, 'S examination was then resumed:

Q. Mr. Gould, will you give an order to Hilton for the production of these books, or do you decline to do it! A. If I have the power to give such an order, according to the articles of the Association. I will give it.

Q. De you decline to say whether, you will give such an order responding to the articles of the Association. I will give it.

The Master—Do you or do you not decline to give hat order! You have not given a proper nawer to the question. A. Suppose you direct me to do an illegal set?

The Master—Othat is not the question; you have no right to pressume. The Master-De loss of the guestion. A. Suppose you are of given a proper answer to the question. A. Suppose you to do an illegal act?
The Master-Uhat is not the question; you have no right to presume at: I repeat the question: Will you or will you not give that order?

Before I answer that question, I should prefer to know my duties pre-that I repeat he question, I should prefer to know my duties precisely in the premises.

Judge Pierrepont—Then he declines to answer.

The Master—Does he say be decknos!

Winness—I have nothing father to say on that subject; if that is decliming, I stand on the answer.

Mr. Southmayd—I ask that you, as Master, do now positively direct the witness to produce those books.

The Master—I have already given such orders; you can serve the order on him again if you like. You may put on the minutes that the Master has directed the witness to produce those books, and that he refuses to bring them or order them to be brought.

Mr. Southmayd—Can you specify the books!

The Master—They are specified in the order which was served upon the witness. What do you say to that, Mr.

Gould!

served upon the witness. What do you say to that, Mr. Gould!
Gould—I have answered already.
The Master—That is no answer. Here is a person having physical control of those books, and you decline to order him to produce them.
Gould—I don't purpose to dispute any of your orders, or to be guilty of any act of contempt, but this is a matter in which I don't know my powers. I don't want to interrupt the Treasury Department of the Erle Railroad Company to the extent of $50,000 or $50,000 a day unless I have the power to do it.

The Master—The road is entitled to some consideration, and so is justice, but the road must give way in the interest of the latter. You can go further in this if you desire, Mr. Southmayd.—You intend, I suppose, to certify to the Court that Mr. Gould declines to produce those books!

The Master—I shall certify that not only does be de-books i

The Master—I shall certify that not only does he decline to produce the books, but also that he will not give an order for their production.

Mr. Gould—Won't you enter my explanation!

The Master+No, Sir; you have not answered my questions, and your counsel does not claim that you have.

Gould—Then I don't know what an answer is; but it seems to me that I have given you a good common sense answer.

seems to me that I have given you a good common-sense answer.

The examination was then continued:

Q. Who comprises the Eventive Committee of your Corporation! A. Plus, Lanc, I weed and myself; but none of them have, to my knowledge, any control ever the books.

Q. Has any one any centrol ever those books! A. I have answered that before: to answer is intelligently, I must look at the acticles.

The Marter-You said a little shile ago that you sent four ext-loads of books down here, as I directed von to day where the youngest the authority to do that? A. I don't know; I think I must know assumed it. 32

Q. If you assumed the authority again would it be obeyed! A. I seppose so: I have never given a thought to the subject.

Mr. Southmayd then said that he should now be forced to apply to the United States Circuit Coarri for an order directing Gould to produce the books, and the investigation adjourned for the day.

THE RIGHT TO BUILDINGS ON LANDS TAKEN FOR PUBLIC PURPOSE.

Catharine A. Schuchardt, Wm. P. Douglass, and A. Gordon Hamersley each brought a separate action against the Mayor, &c., to recover the value of certain buildings which stood upon their premises, taken for the Church-st. extension. The Commissioners of Estimate reported that the land would be required for the extension, saying nothing about the buildings; and further reported the amount of damage in each case in con-extension, saying nothing about the buildings; and further reported the amount of damage in each case in consequence of the relinquishment of the lot with the improvements thereon, and of the removal of the building, which, by the terms of the report, the owners were required to remove. The report was consented to by the parties, and confirmed by the Court. The owners, however, were not allowed to remove the materials, the city claiming ownership. These suits were then brought, and, upon demurrer to the complaint, judgment was given in favor of the city. The plaintiffs appealed, and the cases were argued yesterday in the Supreme.Court, General Term.

The plaintiffs claim that, under the law of eminent domain, the State can only take what is indispensably necessary for the public use, and the materials in this case not being required, the taking of them by the Commissioners, of any law authorizing the taking of them, would have been void; that such taking was contrary to a custom acted on in this city for over 60 years; that the plain intention and effect of the report of the Commissioners was to leave the ownership of the materials and the right of removing them to the previous owners of the lots taken. On the part of the Corporation, it was contended that by the law of 1813, under which the Commissioners acted, their duty was simply to assess the loss and damage, and that they had no authority to make any reference to the removal of buildings from the premises; that the objection should have been made before the confirmation of the report; that on such confirmation the title to the lands required for the opening, with the tenements, hereditaments, and premises vested in the city, and that the Commissioners had no power to suggest that all buildings would be required to be removed. Detailon reserved. John E. Parsons and J. Hooker Hamersley for plaintiffs; A. J. Vanderpoel for defendants.

GERMAN OPERA IN COURT.

In the Marine Court, before Judge Curtis, yesterday, Sigismund Windt brought an action against Edward Hamann and Heman Rosenberg, proprietors of the Stadt Theater, to recover $615, alleging that on the ad of March last he entered into a contract with Herr Joel to furnish an orchestra for the German Opera in Philadelphia, and that after two performances had been given the Opera was passed into the hands of the defendants, who undertook to run it for the remainder of the season and pay all the bills. The defendants claim that they did not become responsible for the payment of the orchestra. Decision reserved. ad of March last he entered into a contract with Herr VERDICT AGAINST AN INSURANCE COMPANY. William D. Murphy brought an action in the Supreme Court Circuit of Kings County, yesterday, to recover from the Imperial Fire Insurance Company of Q. the fire, and without notice to the Company. Plaintiff claimed that he had fulfilled all the provisions of the policy, and that there had been no conveyance of the property to Riley, although he had, without Riley's knowledge, made out a conveyance in his name and placed it on record in the Register's office, intending to get Riley to accept it and transfer it to Birs. Murphy; that Riley knew nothing of the execution of the deed until after the fire, after the company had refused to pay the policy. Judgs Gilbert charged the Jury that there must be an actual delivery of a conveyance made to constitute a transfer, and that merely placing it on record did not make it one. Verdict of $2,725 45 for plaintiff.

A SISTER'S PLEA

John Hyde, age 11, was arraigned at the bar in the Court of Special Sessions, yesterday, on a charge of petty larceny. He had no sooner made his appearance from the dock than his little sister, passing the gauntlet of police officers, came running up to him, and sobbing as though her heart would break, and flinging her arms round his neck, cried, "Oh, Johnny, Johnny, what has brought you here?" Johnny cried in sympathy with his little sister, and, indeed, every eye in court was moistened. After embracing him affectionately, the little child dropped on her knees, and, with her hinds uplifted and the tears streaming down her cheeks, begged that her little brother might "be let go." Justice Dowling could not resist the appeal so touchingly made, and discharged "poor Johnny."

THE HOGAN WILL-MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL DENIED.

Hatch, Judge Sutherland has denied the motion for a new trial. In a short opinion he says:

In view of certain recent cases in the Court of Appeals referred to on the trial of the issues of this case. I do not think I would be justified in viewing the venicis as so palpathy against the weight of the evidence as to lead use to grant the motion for a new trial on the minutes of the Court. The motion is therefore dismissed, but without ceast. In making this decision I assume, of course, that the defendants, Enguse and Clara M. Peugnet, have a right to more for a new trial on a case, or case and bill of exceptions, to be made and settled according to the rules and practice of this Court.

CIVIL NOTES.

Abby W. Smith sued Gustave L. Haustecht, in the City Court of Brooklyn, to recover $340 25, the value of certain household furniture belonging to her, and which, she claimed, the defendant obtained in the Fall of 1803. The defendant alleged that the prop-erty was assigned to him by plaintiff, in lieu of $2 due him for reut of the premises in Bergen-st., occupied by plaintiff. Verdiet for the defendant.

The action brought before Judge Gilbert in the Kings County Circuit Court on Wednesday, by Fredcrick Baker, against Amelia Dederky, to test the validity of a will which Surrogate Veeder had refused to admit to probate, resulted, yesterday, in exonerating plaintiff from all the charges, made against him by the defendant, of having improperly obtained the will by having exer-cised undue influence over the testatrix. The amount of property involved is about $10,000.

In the Special Term of the Superior Court the defendant in the case of Ellen Ford against Frederick W. Ford was brought before Judge Monell on a writ of w. Ford was brought better defendant. Ford was arrested for contempt in not paying the $10 per week almony ordered by the Court. The dness were $250. Decision reserved... The suit of Schmidt against Schmidt came up before Judge Speacer on a motion to arrest the defendant for contempt in not paying the alimony ordered. Decision reserved.

Before Judge Neilson, in the City Court of Brocklyn, John T. Murtah brought an action yesterday to recover $10,000 from the Brocklyn and Coney Island Railroad Company, for injuries received by being thrown Railroad Company, for injuries received by being thrown under a car of the Company in Smith-st. Dec. 22, 1870. Plaintiff claimed that he signaled the car, and that just as he was stepping on the platform it was started, and he was thrown to the ground, receiving injuries that will disable him for life. The defense alleged that the plathtiff attempted to get on the front platform of the car without signaling it to stop, and that his foot slipped and he went under the car. The Court granted a non-sit

The suit brought by Frederick Vassault, as seignee of Garrett W. Ryckman, formerly Vice-Consul of the United States at Valparaiso against James Murof the United States at Valparaiso against James Murphy, to recover $5,000 for services rendered by Ryckman to the defendant upon the occasion of the seizure of the vessel "Townsend Jones," by the Government of Call, whither it had carried a carro of arms and munitions of war, resulted in a dismissal of the complaint, on the ground that the master of the vessel abandoned her on a certain date to the Chillan Government under protest; that the agreement or contract with Ryckman was made after that, and for services rendered after that; that the master's authority, or power of attorney as master, ceased when he abandoned the vessel, and therefore, he had no authority to make any contract to bind the owner of the vessel, furthy, unless such was specially approved of by the owner; and finally, that Ryckman had notice of all this before he made the contract.

Catherine Keveney sued the Excelsior Life Insurance Company, yesterday, in the Superior Court, to Insurance Company, yesterday, in the Superior Court, to recover $5,000 on a policy of insurance issued on her brother's life, in March, 1869. Upon the death of the insured, in September following, the Company refused to pay the money, alleging that no premium had ever been pay the money, alleging that no premium had ever been paid; that false and fraudulent answers were made to the questions put to the deceased in regard to his health, inasmuch as he was a sufferer from delirium tremens; that Keveney, being unable to pay the first premium—$1.38 c6—gave his premissory note for that amount, payable within is days from March 27, 1869, and that this note was not paid when it became due. Judge Freedman dismissed the complaint, helding that when the note was not paid at maturity the policy became void, even if it had been in existence.

THE MONEY MARKET.

SALES AT THE STOCK EXCHANGE.-FIRST CALL,

101 O'CLOCK A. M.

THURSDAY, April 20-P. M. The temper of the stock market continues much the same as last reported, the transactions keeping up about the same scale of magnitude. Lake Shore is again the leading speculative card, and the appetite for the stock seems insatiate. Where all the stock comes the prediction of higher prices which is still confidently made by the bulls seems likely to be verified; and it is to be presumed that, before it comes to a crisis, stocks will have been obligingly furnished to the outside buyers, whose numbers always increase as prices advance. The speculation has as yet neglected quite a number of old favorites, such as St. Paul, Pacific Mail, Alton and Terro Haute, Wabash, &c., but we presume the fever will in time reach these, if the turn in the tide does not come too soon, the disorder spreading generally like the measles, or any other contagious disease. In fact, Wabash seems to have caught the infection already, and Pacific Mail shows incipient symptoms of having been touched. The prices reached to-day in New-York Cen tral stock, Lake Shore, North-Western Common and Preferred, Rock Island, and Wabash, were in advance of any heretofore recorded this season. The principal dealings were in these shares; and while as before stated there are strong evidences that the cliques are busily engaged in transferring their stocks, the general market in its buoyancy is apparently not affected. This proves the signal ability displayed by the buil combinations in conducting their operations during the present campaign. Except in the above-mentioned stocks the movement today has been without notable significance. In reference to the matter of the increase in the share capital of the Erle Enilway Company, the following letter has been transmitted:

OFFICE OF FARMERS' LOAN AND TRUST CO., ? OFFICE OF FARMERS' LOAN AND TRUST CO., (
NEW-YORK, April 19, 1871.)

WM. SEYMOUR, esq., President N. Y. Stock Exchange.

DEAR SIR: The Eric Railway Company have this day notified me that, by order of their Board of Directors, the common capital stock of that Company has been fucroased $3,000,000 by the conversion of an equal amount of convertible bonds. Yours, very truly,

R. G. ROLSTON, President.

The registrars of the Eric Company are the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company. Article 3 of the Stock Exchange by-laws requires that a "notice of 30 days shall be given in writing to the President of the Board of any intended increase of stock that is speculatively dealt in by any corporate company, leither direct or through the issue of convertible bonds." Such issue by the Eric renders the stock of that Company liable to elimination from the list, but the Governing Committee have decided temporarily to suspend the operation of Article 3 of the by-laws, the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company having agreed not to admit any new stock to registry until the 30 days' notice has expired. This new stock is therefore not a good delivery at the Stock Exchange.

The rise in the St. Joseph stocks is due to rumors of dividend, but we are informed on excellent authority that the affairs of the Company will not warrant it. Investment shares run generally firm, and miscellaneou stocks steady, express being strong, with a rise in United States to 522 from 464. The following table shows the highest and lowest prices of active stocks made to-day:

The gold market opened with a confident tone, indications favoring a further rise; the largeness of the bids for the Treasury gold furnishing food for an advance from 1114 to 1114, the business having been active throughout the day. The bids for the Treasury gold were large, and close to the open market price, which in-duced the Secretary to sell $4,000,000 gold instead of $2,000,000 advertised for. This gave a crushing blow to the bull movement, and carried down the price from 1111 to 111, though later reacting a fraction. The rates for borrowing were flat, 2, 3, and 1 per cent per annum, and 1-64 per diem. The Parthin sailed to-day with $415,000 in coin. The day's business at the Gold

Exchange Bank was as follows : Gold cleared, $62,193,699; gold balances, $2,406,949; currency balances, $2,525,526 The following were the quotations of gold:

the stock seems insatiate. Where all the stock comes from and where it all goes to is a mystery which can only be solved by the supposition of an accession of buyers at every step of the advance. The buyers of yesterday are probably sellers to-day; and the same parties undoubtedly take a new venture in the stock as seen as they are satisfied that it has not reached a point of reaction. It is said that the original parties sold at about 107, but other "Richards" must be "in the field." for the effect of the dumping of such a lot of stock upon the market was very slight. It is quite evident that outsiders are assisting the speculation at our Stock Exchange in much greater force than for months past, and it looks now as if the cliques would have all the oppportunity they can desire for selling. Under the circumstances, with a gradually in creasing area of speculation as the public enters the ring, the prediction of higher prices which is still confidently made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to made by the buils seems likely to be verified; and it is to the same basis, for temporary or permanent invest ment, with Governments or any other security. These bonds are a first and only mortgage of $20,000 per mile, based on a railroad that has cost $40,000, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minne sota-shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

ing-House, at market price-thus placing them on

The net earnings are already largely in excess of nterest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year. A contract has been secured with the Chicago Burlington and Quiney Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedas Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of thus Company. This arrangement makes a practical con-sinking fund for the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Bonds. The c nvertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest solidation of the two roads, and establishes a large obligation. An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9j per cent interest, instead of 5 per cent, which is all that Governments pay at pree price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent in price for reinvestment. The subscription price of the bonds is 90, and most desirable 6 per contractions. most desirable 6 per cent securities in the market.

They are amply secured, are well known and of established credit in all the principal money markets of the world, and are regularly quoted and dealt in at the Stock Exchanges of New-York, Amsterdam, Frankfort, Berlin, and London, and are as readily salable in large or small amounts, at any time, at quoted market rates, as are Government bonds. We deal in these bonds, and buy and sell them at current market rates, and believe them to be as absolutely safe as any investment can be. They can now be had in exchange for Five-Twenties at a profit of about 13 per cent. This profit may be realized and 6 per cent gold interest contin-FISK & HATCH. ued with entire safety.
